

ADDITIONAL TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR DOG OWNERS

Ballynoe House welcomes responsible dog owners with housetrained, well-behaved pets outside of the main summer holiday season, subject to availability and owners acceptance of these additional T&Cs. For logistical and operational reasons, we are unable to take pets in high season from mid-June to the end of August.

Dogs, kindly note that:

- You will be kept on a lead at all times within the grounds of Ballynoe House and not permitted to roam or play unleashed. This is consideration of local wildlife, the owners pets, ground-nesting birds, and the farm animals in neighbouring fields. There are plenty of local walks and beaches where you can get lots of exercise.
- Your owner must clean up after you ('poop & scoop') by bagging and binning.
- Your owner should bring all your creature comforts such as toys, dog baskets, blankets, and towels. You might be kept overnight in a vehicle if your owner chooses to do so. Guesthouse towels are not for your use.
- Whatever you may be allowed to do at home, you are not permitted to sit on any furniture within the guesthouses (sofas and beds) and you will not be left unsupervised at any time.
- We are sure you will have a great time exploring, but it can be wet and muddy/sandy here, especially if you go in the sea. You will not be allowed in guesthouses without being cleaned and dried first. Your owner can wash you at the facility provided at the side of the shed.
- Your owner is responsible for all damage and any personal injuries caused by you and they will pay for every repair or replacement. They will also indemnify the owners of Ballynoe House against all liability and damage incurred by the you while on the premises. Please be kind to other guests & dogs and especially their children, as we do frequent have autistic guests who need greater understanding.
- Your owner will be paying an additional daily charge of €10 per dog for your stay, added to the daily rate. This is to cover the additional cleaning costs after you have left. Your owner will in any event ensure the property is cleaned of dog hairs, etc., before leaving for the next occupants.
- Please do not misbehave otherwise you and your owners may be asked to leave.

We hope you enjoy your stay!
